Stay connected

Whether you are in the mood for the hustle and bustle and bright lights of London, or are seeking the kind of haven that only village living can offer, life at Jubilee Meadows provides the best of both worlds. With train stations at both Walton-on-Thames and Hersham less than a mile away, and journey times to London Waterloo in little over 20 minutes, you can enjoy easy access to the Capital for work or pleasure.

When it comes to relaxation, the glorious open spaces of the Royal Parks and Hampton Court Palace lie tantalisingly within your reach, with both Bushy Park and Richmond Park less than a 20 minute drive. For pure escapism, in little more than half an hour you could find yourself taking in the splendour of the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. You will never have felt so near, yet so far from the big city.

Inspired design

Beautifully considered architecture, set amidst carefully planned hard and soft landscaping. Jubilee Meadows will quickly mellow into the picturesque Surrey landscape.

No detail has been overlooked at Jubilee Meadows. We have carefully selected premium tiles, kitchens and high quality bathrooms that ooze sophistication, luxury and warmth. So you know your home will be beautiful from the moment you move in.

Building quality homes in highly desirable locations

Quality, imagination and meticulous attention to exterior and interior details are the key factors that have enabled Bewley Homes to secure its reputation for excellence.

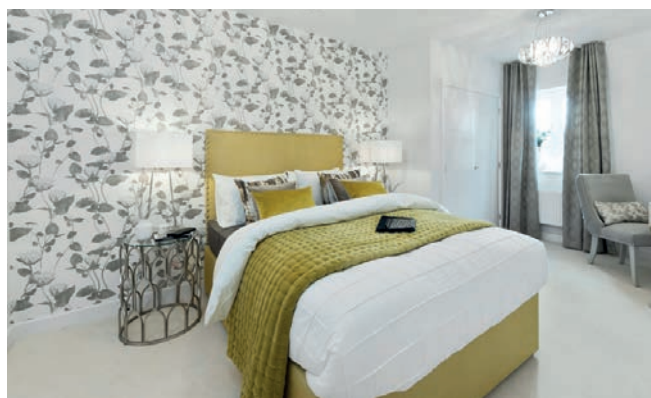

No matter what the price range, or house style, each Bewley Homes property is situated in a carefully selected location, designed to complement its environment, while meeting the practical requirements of everyday living.

Bewley Homes promotes environmentally responsible designs and specifies building techniques that typically score in the top 10% for energy efficiency. The company also has a clearly defined policy regarding landscaping and protecting the environment.

Bewley Homes believes in working with the community to achieve the best planning and design solutions and its portfolio of award winning developments has played a crucial role in building local relationships and confidence. As a result Bewley Homes is recognised and respected by its purchasers as well as planning authorities for quality, innovation and development excellence.

Bewley Homes supports a variety of charities through events and fundraising activities including:

- Guide Dogs for the Blind
- Sebastian's Action Trust
- Arrhythmia Alliance
